Thank you for always being there for our family in the good times and harder times, such as mom's passing. Thank you for the food, calls, texts and prayers. Mom loved her church family above all else as we do also. Thank you for loving her.

TERRY'S TIDBITS
 The worship of our Lord warmed our hearts this past week. We celebrated the resurrection of Jesus. We enjoyed the music from the Choir. We rejoiced at the number of guests we had. The children gave our hearts an ahhh moment when we saw them on the podium. Most of all, we were able to fellowship with one another. It is my prayer that you were able to have time with your family. Maybe you hid some eggs for the children. Maybe you remembered past times with family and friends. Maybe you welcomed new members into your family. My greatest prayer is that your heart felt the power and presence of the Lord.
 As we approach the end of April, let us not forget that Mother's Day is coming. Graduation Sunday is just around the corner, so let us prepare for these events.
 I will be gone this Tuesday and Wednesday. I have meetings in Texarkana and will return on Thursday morning. Bro. Muncy will be in charge Wednesday night.
 Bro. Terry
